

GENERAL NEGLIGENCE

Johnson & Bell's General Negligence group works with a diverse client pool, defending, educating and counseling clients on how to avoid potential liability situations, anticipating the plaintiff's theories of recovery, and advising clients on current federal, state and municipal laws that may impact their businesses.

Clients include:

- Property owners and occupiers such as hotel chains, food and drug retailers, commercial lessors and owners of shopping centers
- Groups or individuals involved in complex medical issues, products liability, construction, workers compensation and third-party practice

Education includes:

- Seminars for claims representatives on interviewing during initial evaluation
- Presentation to multi-national corporations regarding litigation holds and e-discovery
